	increased. Several agencies have visiting and sending the same practitioners so there is continuity, and the families can build their trust with them. Currently running the Kindy ready program 'Nhaguma Marru' this aims at children and families who will be attending Kindergarten in 2026. Grant updated the school board with the Rio Tinto funding for the program. Department of Education has now got new proforma's and is currently with DOE for finalisation. Grant is continuing conversations with MAC, it is slower that first thought but still positive for additional funding. The bus has had a great response with Waja Guma running four days a week. Lucy is leaving the school and Grant thanked Lucy for all the work that she has done.
8:00pm	Playfully Explicit K-2 Lucy presented the Playfully Explicit K-2 with what it is involving. This works on explicit instruction with intentional play. It is focused on sustained shared thinking with open ended questions to extend the students thinking. Lucy will email out the power point for further information on the program. This allows students to be challenged and using different was of communication.	Lucy Billingham
8:10pm	Sponsorship Opportunities Keep on until needed. Form subcommittee for the sponsorship when needed.
8:10pm	General Business School Board Tenure Farewell to Jeremy Harvey and Marshall Lawrence. Both Jeremy and Marshall are leaving Karratha, thank you for all of your work
